

A DECLARATION AND NOTICE

Brought before the PEOPLE of Great Heaving
And witneffing thereunto
Their INDEBTEDNESS to the Great goodneff of oure well-knowne and respected ladye
Mrs Amanda J Threadbone
widdowe of this PARISHE.

Lette it be henceforth knowen that on this day the 21st of December in the year of OUR LORDE 1641 that MRS THREADBONE was given by consent of all the peoples present and with great ACCLAMATION the accustom'd titles and stations of a GREAT mistrefff of the PARISHE hereto forth and henceforth accordyng to Bothe custome and LAW and that she shall be Shewen such RESPECT and REGARD as befits one so Recognized and Regarded Be it also knowen that she shall be ENTITLED to a free busse-passe and the gyfte of £10 each yeare and a small chickyne from the bountye of the PARISHE on the day of the Feast of St Hildegarde of Clonge.

By order of the High Sherriff of the Countye of Dorset in the KINDGOME of Great Britaine.

Bryanston Thrupence

GOD SAVE THE KING
and a pox on PARLIAMENT

PRINTED BY Caxton Thradbone at THE THREADBONE PRESSE in THE Countye of Dorset